Be patient, you are learning a new skill. You will also have sectional at 5pm on 2/11.

Note to all brass: You too have a new concept to learn featured in the "gold bar" starting on page 24. Work on the described lip slurs.

ARE YOU MISSING MUSIC?

PRACTICE WITH A TUNER

The director would like all members, in their daily practice, to play with a tuner on your music stand. Doing so will help you learn your pitch tendencies on your instrument, recognize when you are out of pitch and learn what you need to do to correct the pitch. While you may be in pitch on one note there may be other note(s) not in pitch. Some notes can be more problematic than others and that differs from instrument to instrument. The goal is for each of you to improve your intonation. If everyone works on this individually, we'll be a stronger, better band by May.

LOOKING AHEAD TO AUDITIONS

This time of year is a GREAT time to gently remind everyone that the audition deadline about six (6) months away. It will be here before you know it. Current Cadets should also pay heed to this advice. If you hope to move up a level you will need to prepare a Concert Junior audition.

Musical skills are not best built separately over the summer, or even worse, in just a few days before an audition recording is due. They are built with diligent, consistent daily practice.

Audition requirements are subject to change to a greater or lesser degree every year. In the past, Junior and Senior audition requirements have changed only slightly from year to year (see Audition Requirements on our website's AUDITIONS tab). Know that we are always considering new options. Please note the Senior Audition requires a portion of the Part 2 No. 1 scale passage from the book entitled Unisonal Scales, Chords & Rhythmic Studies for Bands Compiled and edited by William C. White, published by Carl Fischer. Senior audition music, which is required in addition to the exercises, is released about a month before the audition recording deadline.

Our more challenging, Symphonic audition is based on the entire Part 2 No. 1 scale passage from the Unisonal Scales, Chords & Rhythmic Studies for Bands Compiled and edited by William C. White, published by Carl Fischer. Symphonic audition music, which is required in addition to the exercises, is released about a month before the audition recording deadline.

All these exercises can and should be practiced DAILY if students hope to improve as musicians, especially those not studying privately. They are foundational assignments that are designed to help the student to progress.

The director encourages you to evaluate yourself and your skills.

- Was last year's audition too hard? Then what is stated above applies even more.
- Was last year's audition quite easy? Then perhaps it is time to explore the idea of striving to promote up to the next band. This will require you leaving your comfort zone and entering a new set of unfamiliar and more challenging exercises.

Again, whichever band you hope to study with next year, the audition exercises are not learned and perfected overnight, but over time. Start now. Begin working daily on the audition exercises for the band you see yourself in for fall.

Desire to move up a band level? Please remember, in order to be considered for a band level promotion, members need to prepare and perform BOTH the audition for the band they are in as well as the one to which they are aspiring. This is all the more reason to begin preparing known parts early.

You won't regret it, but you will regret not using the next six months wisely.
